GOVERNOR DAVIS NAMES MEMBER TO THE YOUTHFUL OFFENDER PAROLE BOARD

SACRAMENTO – Governor Gray Davis today announced the appointment of Charles Supple as a member of the Youthful Offender Parole Board.

Mr. Supple, 44, of Sacramento, has been the Executive Director of GoServ, the Governor's Commission on Improving Life Through Service, since his appointment by Governor Davis in February 2000. From 1995 to 2000, Mr. Supple worked as President and CEO of Public Allies, Incorporated, where he helped develop the next generation of community and nonprofit leaders among young adults. Prior to that, Mr. Supple was a Director at the Corporation for National Service, the Vice President of Youth and Education Outreach for the Points of Light Foundation and he also served as a Senior Executive On-Loan for the White House Office of National Service. He has served on the Boards of Directors for the Gill Foundation, the Independent Sector, the Tavis Smiley Foundation, Youth Service California and the Grantmakers Forum for Community and National Service. In the past, he has served as Chairman of the City of Berkeley's Community Health Advisory Commission, and on the board of directors for UCLA's Uni-Camp, and the Campus Outreach Opportunity League. Mr. Supple earned a bachelor of arts degree from the University of California, Berkeley and a master of public administration degree from the Harvard University JFK School of Government.

The Youthful Offender Parole Board appraises youthful law offenders and delinquents, the circumstances of delinquency committed, and the evaluation of the individual's progress toward reformation. Mr. Supple will receive a salary of $99,693. This position requires Senate confirmation.
